Senior Seminar

* Senior Seminar is part of your major requirements and ½ of your DC.
* Once you are at 135 units (Senior Status) you will receive a survey prior to Registration.
* Senior Seminars are numbered 119, 139, 159 and 179.
* Students help plan and execute Psych 1, Intro to Psychology, under the guidance of faculty and graduate students.

* They are responsible for running a section, attending a weekly meeting regarding teaching techniques/course material, and attending all lectures.
What is Field Study?
PSYC 193

Psychology Field Study is an academic internship program offered to psychology majors to integrate current and prior coursework with community involvement. For a minimum of two quarters, students devote ten hours a week to a community based internship.
Field Placements within Santa Cruz County

* Special Education Intern
* Therapeutic Childcare Provider
* Behavior Aide
* Teacher’s Aide
* Counselor’s Assistant
* Mentor
* Domestic Violence Prevention Program Assistant
* After School Program
* Group Home Assistant
* Alternative High School
* Psychiatric Lock Down Facility
* Public Defenders Office
* Probation Department
* Transitional Housing For People with Mental Illness
Research allows you to work as an undergraduate research assistant in current faculty research projects. This is an excellent opportunity to develop your research skills and to work with faculty personally.
Senior thesis gives you an opportunity to directly work with a faculty member and/or graduate student and conduct your own research like a first year graduate student.

A great way to prepare yourself for what you will be doing in graduate school and a possibility of getting your research published!!
